

SHOW PROFILE

Since 1975, the Dayton Air Show is one of America's premier air shows. The event showcases world-class aerobatic champions, military jet demonstrations, and entertainment for the whole family.

Market Area

Southern Ohio region of Dayton, Cincinnati and Columbus – reaching up to 4 million people.

As the Birthplace of Aviation, and home of the National Museum of the Air Force and Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, the Dayton Air Show also attracts spectators from around the world.

Feature Show

- ★ Air Force Thunderbirds and Navy Blue Angels appearances
- ★ International Jet Demonstrations
- ★ U.S. Army Golden Knights and U.S. Navy Leap Frogs
- ★ World-class civilian aerobatic champions
- ★ Thrilling specialty attractions such as Robosaurus, Tora! Tora! Tora! and Shockwave
- ★ Pyrotechnic Displays

Static Displays and Facilities

- ★ Static displays ranging from warbirds and historic aircraft to heavy jets and supersonic fighters
- ★ 2 million square feet of ramp space
- ★ 10,900' CAT III Runway

Spectator Area

- ★ 75,000 Annual Average Attendance
- ★ 28 Viewing Chalets
- ★ 500 Pavilion Umbrella Tables
- ★ Exclusive Chairman's Club
- ★ Quality Lawn General Admission Areas

Parking/Shuttle

15,000 On-site parking spaces, VIP Parking and dedicated air-conditioned shuttles for specialty seating areas

